IN this School attention is given exclusively to the requirements for admission to LEHIGH UNIVERSITY. Its course is finished when these have been thoroughly mastered. The Principal is aided in his work by six assistants, who, each having a special department, are able to make their instruction thorough, practical and satisfactory. During the past six years, one hundred and fifty-eight of our scholars have been admitted to the University in full standing.

One advantage which this School has over most other preparatory schools is, that it is near the University, and continually receives from President and Professors such influences and suggestions as help to make the preparatory instruction most thorough and effective.

A limited number of pupils will be taken as boarders at the house of the Principal.

EXPENSES:

For the school year beginning September, 1885, and closing with the examination for admission to LEHIGH UNIVERSITY in June, 1886:

You can buy boots that look like ours for three fifty, and you'll be told they are like them. They are not. The shoes are no more alike than the dealing. What we call hand-sewed is sewed by hand. What passes for hand-sewed in most of the shops is machine imitation. It may be that machine work is going to be as good as hand work. When it is as good the dealers needn't tell that particular lie any more.

BY the death of Dr. G. B. Linderman, the University has lost a very valuable friend and supporter. Dr. Linderman has been a member of the Board of Trustees, chairman of the Executive Committee, and a member of the Building Committee, ever since the founding of Lehigh University. He devoted a large portion of his time to advancing the interests of Lehigh, and his loss will be severely felt.

OWING to the deaths of Judge Maynard and Dr. Linderman, several changes have been made in both the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee of the University. Their places on the Board of Trustees have been filled respectively by Mr. Charles Harts-horne of Philadelphia, and Mr. Charles H. Cummings of Mauch Chunk. Mr. Robt. H. Sayre has become Chairman of the Executive Committee, in place of Dr. Linderman, while his own place on the Committee is taken by Mr. H. Stanley Goodwin.

THE absence of proper garments for Gymnasium work is more noticeable than ever this year. Shirt-sleeves and necks innocent of collars and cravats are admirable for back yard garden work in the country, but under those circumstances one is not subject to the incursions of visitors. In the Gymnasium this is not the case, and its Director has requested us to make some allusion to the fact in our columns. At the same time we would refer the new comers to a notice upon the Gymnasium bulletin board relative to this same matter of garments.

THE foot-ball team has played two games. In the first, notwithstanding a strong rush line, weakness at half-back and full-back ran up the score against Lehigh. In the second a weak rush line, with only fairly strong back players, lost them a game which they should have won. This certainly could and should be remedied, and the men should be required to play in the same positions whenever they practice. A strong team can be formed if the men are handled in the proper way. Lehigh men need vigorous handling both while practicing and in matches.

THE Athletic Association has been re-organized by the adoption of an entirely new constitution, which we give, together with the by-laws, in a supplement to this number of THE BURN. The new Executive Committee, though a somewhat complex affair, promises to do a great deal towards the establishment of a definite system of work in athletics. The grounds, at least, will be steadily improved, and, we trust, our records will be advanced accordingly. The men who represent the Alumni on the committee, are a guarantee of a more vigorous and more wide awake system than that which has existed at Lehigh up to this time.

THE "Barn" still stands, a doubtful ornament to the College Grounds. The threats of impulsive lower classmen to burn it down have not yet been carried out, and we trust they never will be. It can be put to a much better use. The Athletic Association must surely have enough influence to effect the transfer of the above mentioned "Barn" to their honorable body. And when they once own it, with the aid of modern appliances designed for such purposes, it could easily be moved to the Athletic Grounds. Proper dressing-rooms on the grounds stand high among the wants of students with athletic tastes, and this seems to be as good a time as any to procure them.

WE trust that the Mustard and Cheese Dramatic Association is not to be ranked among the things of the past. It has lost very few of those who helped to make the brilliant record which its single performance scored, and no doubt, among the numerous additions to Lehigh's rolls, men possessing dramatic talent can be found.

The Association was founded after Christmas last year, and time could be found for only one performance. If active measures are at once pursued, a play could easily be produced before Christmas; and after Christmas ample time could be found for another. Thus our Thespians can relieve the winter gloom, and help us to exist without our oft-lamented opera house.

HISTORY truly repeats itself. Last year THE BURR tried its best to make known the wants of the unfortunate sophomores in the Laboratory. The cry was then for stools; the same is now heard on all hands, and it again behooves THE BURR to take up the cudgels for the no less unfortunate sophomores of this year. They are inflamed by the occasional glimpses which they catch of electricals taking their otium cum dig. on the first floor of Packer, where, it is safe to say, a man is capable of doing a much higher grade of work. It is unfair to the student, in one of the hardest terms in his course, to unfit him for work at night, by sending him home at five o'clock in the afternoon, exhausted by three hours of continual standing, and to expect good recitations on the following day.

THE BURR has never aspired to the position of an expounder of the Art of Etiquette. On several occasions it has noticed acts of rudeness perpetrated by offensive or ignorant students, and again it becomes its duty to criticise one of these acts.

At the hop on Founder's Day, very many ladies expressed great annoyance at the manner in which some students, whom they happened to know, rushed up to them on their entrance to the room, and without by your leave, pardon, or anything of the kind, having ejaculated, "Miss—, my friend Mr. —", left them with an entire stranger, who had suddenly appeared at their side. It seems very odd to be obliged to inform any one that this is not exactly the thing. These impulsive youths will kindly take time to reflect that although the sum of three dollars entitles any student to appear upon the scene, the fact that he is there is not necessarily sufficient to assure every lady in the room that it is desirable to meet him, and they will see the force of our criticism.

It is so easy to consult the wishes of those concerned as to whom they desire to rank among their acquaintances, that we hope in future this consultation will be made, and all annoyance avoided.

SONG OF THE ECONOMICAL LOVER.

COME to the hop with me, love.
I beg you on my knee, love.
It is on Founder's Day, love.
You'll come, I hear you say, love.
And if it should be wet, love,
We'll take the wagonette, love.

FOOT-BALL.

LEHIGH VS. UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA,
SATURDAY, OCT. 10TH, 1885.

LEHIGH'S opening game for this season, in foot-ball, was played on the fine new athletic grounds of the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia. Alfred Baker, Princeton's well-known half-back, was a very satisfactory referee. The teams were as follows:

Lehigh University.—Rushers—D. G. Miller, '89, Lee, '88, G. H. Davis, '88, Pierce, '87, H. Palmer, '88, Long, '89, and Frauenthal, '86; quarter-back—Smith, '87; half-backs—LaDoo, '87, and Howard, '87; full-back—McFarland, '87.

University of Pennsylvania.—Rushers—Houston, Salter, Griscom, Thompson, Brinton, Tunis, and Miel; quarter-back—Frazier; half-backs—Rutter and Bell; full-back—Remak.

The game was opened by the U. P. team pressing the ball close to the Lehigh goal, when a beautiful kick by Howard brought the ball back into the centre of the field. A foul tackle by LaDoo gave U. P. their first point. A fine kick by Howard, well supported by Frauenthal and Palmer, brought the ball very close to the U. P. goal. A kick by Rutter and a fumble by McFarland gave the ball to Salter, who scored a touch-down, from which Rutter kicked goal. Miel made another touch-down for U. P., but Rutter failed to kick goal. Howard's kicks and Smith's, Palmer's and Frauenthal's tackles kept the ball in the centre of the field for a long while, when Rutter secured the ball and passed it to Frazier, who made a beautiful run, but was stopped in excellent style by Palmer. Soon after Rutter kicked a goal from the field, and some hard rushing forced Lehigh to make a safety touch-down. This closed the first inning with the score 18-0 in favor of U. P.

In the second inning Sawyer took Davis' place, LaDoo played in the rush line, and Long at half. Wilson and Miller also played at half during the course of the game, and Yeatman played in the rush line during part of the inning.

LaDoo opened the second inning by a brilliant run with five or six men hanging to his neck and arms. Brinton scored a touch-down for U. P., and Rutter kicked goal. Lehigh then forced the ball dangerously near U. P.'s goal, when Frazier securing the ball made a touch-down for U. P., but Rutter failed to kick goal. In two cases bad kicks gave the ball to Houston, who made a touch-down each time. Rutter kicked goal from each touch-down. Tunis soon made another touch-down for U. P. from which Rutter failed to make a goal. Brinton then made the eighth touch-down for U. P., from which there was no goal. Wilson made a fine run. LaDoo soon after made a neat pass to Lee, who made a beautiful run, but was prevented from scoring by Frazier. Rutter then scored the last touch-down for U. P., and also kicked a goal. This closed the game with the score 54-0 in favor of University of Pennsylvania.

Lehigh's entire rush line played a strong game. H. Palmer, Frauenthal, Smith and Howard did the best work in tackling. Smith played a steady game at quarter. Howard played an unusually brilliant game at half—his kicking could not have been better. LaDoo and McFarland belong in the rush line, and it proved a great mistake to put them at half and full. A good runner and dodger is needed at half. Wilson is the most promising man for the place. On the University of Pennsylvania's team, Rutter, Frazier and Bell did the finest playing.

LEHIGH VS. HAVERFORD COLLEGE.

SATURDAY, OCT. 17TH, 1885.

The game was called on the Athletic Grounds, South Bethlehem, at 3 o'clock, by referee W. C. Posey, of the University of Pennsylvania. The teams were as follows:

Lehigh University.—Rushers—Yeatman, '87, McFarland, '87, H. Palmer, '88, Pierce, '87, LaDoo, '87, Lee, '88, and Frauenthal, '86; quarter-back—Smith, '87; half-backs—Howard, '87, and A. E. Lewis, '88; full-back—C. B. Davis, '87.

Haverford College.—Rushers—P. H. Morris, Goddard, Orbison, Lewis, Wood, Hilles, and Adams; quarter-back—Sharp; half-backs—Bowne and Garrett; full-back—Hacker.

Lehigh kicked off, and soon pressed the ball close to Haverford's goal, when Pierce broke through the line and made a touch-down for Lehigh. No goal resulted from this touch-down. The good kicking of Haverford's half backs, and the good tackling of Palmer, Lee and Smith kept the ball in the centre of the field for a considerable time. Pierce made a pretty run. Garrett and Morris did some fine dodging and running, bringing the ball near Lehigh's goal, when our team was forced to make a safety touch-down. A poor throw by Pierce to Frauenthal gave the ball to Adams, who then made a touch-down for Haverford, from which Garrett kicked goal.

The second inning was marked by very poor playing, especially on the part of Lehigh. Morris opened the inning by scoring a touch-down, from which Goddard kicked goal. Frauenthal soon made a touch-down, but McFarland failed to kick a goal. Garrett made another touch-down, and Goddard kicked a goal. After about fifteen minutes of very loose playing, Adams scored a touch-down, which closed the game with the score 24 to 8 in favor of Haverford.

Palmer, Lee and Smith did good work for Lehigh, while Garrett and Morris of the Haverteam distinguished themselves. Lehigh showed some improvement at half and full, but was considerably weaker in the rush line than in the University of Pennsylvania game.

THE ATHLETIC HOP.

THE Athletic Hop took place among the events of Founder's Day, and, as usual, was not too crowded for dancing. Owing to the very small number of students present, it was decided to request the gentlemen of the Bethlehems to subscribe.

Dancing began at about ten, with three men to every girl, which, from the girl's standpoint, is as it should be.

The Gymnasium was decorated, not quite so extensively as at the June Hop, but in very good taste. Notwithstanding the objection of some people to cast-off clothing, the flannel coats added very considerably to the beauty of the scene.

The famous Hassler of Philadelphia furnished the music, and the famous Ford of Bethlehem the supper. The dancing was continued until half-past three, and the Hop was voted by all present a complete success.

THE LANDLADY'S DAUGHTER.

OUR house,—our boarding house, of course,—
Boasteth a maiden fair,
Of beauteous mien, of manner blithe,
Of form, beyond compare.

Think not it is some princely dame
Who thus my muse inspires,
'Tis but the daughter of the house,
Who lights and keeps our fires.

Our books and letters, when we're out,
She reads; our rooms are hers.
When we are in, more hard our lot;
She sings. It ne'er occurs

To her to stop. Ah! no, "See-Saw,"
"Dream Faces," "Peek-a-Boo,"
"Don't leave your mother, Tom," she chants.
She knows them through and through.

She's singing now. Through wall and floor
Her voice doth penetrate.
She sang before I rose this morn,
And now the hour's late.

LEHIGH UNIVERSITY TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

THE annual tournament of the L. U. Lawn Tennis Association was held on Saturday, September 26th, and on Monday the 28th. The following is a summary of the play:

SINGLES—First Round.—R. H. E. Porter, '89, defeated H. Toulmin, '86, by a score of 6-4, 6-5. H. Frazier, '89, defeated A. E. Lewis, '88,—score, 6-1, 6-0.

Second Round.—M. A. deW. Howe, Jr., '86, defeated C. L. Flack, '88,—score, 6-0, 6-0. R. H. E. Porter, '89, defeated H. Frazier, '89,—score, 6-5, 6-5. K. Frazier, '87, defeated W.

D. Beatty, '88,—score, 6-2, 6-3. C. B. Davis, '87, defeated G. R. Booth, '86,—score, 6-1, 6-0. In this round the sets between Porter and Frazier, and between Davis and Booth were excellently played.

Third Round.—C. B. Davis, '87, defeated K. Frazier, '87,—score, 6-2, 6-2. R. H. E. Porter, '89, defeated M. A. deW. Howe, Jr., '86,—score, 6-2, 6-5. This was a finely contested game.

Finals.—The final game in the singles was between C. B. Davis, '87, who has held the lawn tennis championship at Lehigh for the past two years, and R. H. E. Porter, '89, who has in various tournaments shown himself to be quite a brilliant player. This was the best game ever witnessed at Lehigh. The two players divided the applause of the audience very evenly. Mr. Davis won with the score 6-3, 1-6, 6-1, 6-5. This is the third consecutive year in which Mr. Davis has won the championship.

In the play for second place in the singles R. H. E. Porter, '89, defeated G. R. Booth, '86,—score, 6-1, 6-2. Porter then defeated K. Frazier, '87,—score, 6-4, 6-3.

DOUBLES—First Round.—R. H. E. Porter, '89, and H. Frazier, '89, defeated K. Frazier, '87, and W. E. Howe, '89, by a score of 6-3, 6-3. M. A. deW. Howe, Jr., '86, and C. B. Davis, '87, defeated G. R. Booth, '86, and H. Toulmin, '86,—score, 6-1, 6-1.

Finals.—M. A. deW. Howe, Jr., '86, and C. B. Davis, '87, defeated R. H. E. Porter, '89, and H. Frazier, '89,—score, 6-0, 6-5, 6-2. This was an excellently played game.

In the play for second place in the doubles G. R. Booth, '86, and H. Toulmin, '86, defeated R. H. E. Porter, '89 and H. Frazier, '89,—score, 6-5, 6-5.

This tennis tournament was decidedly the most successful one ever held at Lehigh. The playing throughout was of a very high order of excellence. The playing of Messrs. Davis, Porter, M. Howe, and H. Frazier was especially creditable. The students seemed to take more interest in the tournament this year than ever before.

TO A MEERSCHAUM.

'TIS not the nicotine
That's colored you so well,
But th' essence of the thoughts
That, driven by the smell
Of your blue smoke
Did surge and well
Forth from this idling brain.

J. SARE.

SOUTHERN STATES TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

THE lawn tennis tournament of the Delaware Field Club, and, by authority of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, the tournament for the championship of the Southern States, was held in Wilmington, Delaware, on the first, second and third of October. Lehigh was represented by C. B. Davis, '87, and R. H. E. Porter, '89.

In the singles Davis and Porter each defeated all their antagonists, and had to play the finals between themselves. Davis won the finals from Porter by a score of 6-2, 6-1, 6-3.

In the finals in the doubles, Davis and Porter defeated Johnson and Hilles, the team of the Delaware Field Club, by a score of 6-4, 6-3, 0-6, 6-1.

This gives Lehigh the championship of the Southern States in Lawn Tennis. Messrs. Davis and Porter deserve great credit for bringing the championship home to Lehigh. The prize in the singles was a handsome silver pitcher, and in the doubles two fine silver goblets.

—Lehigh and its BURR were sadly slandered in the October number of the Lafayette. For some reason our neighbors did not send us this number. The only possible manner in which we can account for this sad omission, is that they were ashamed of the verse which appeared at our expense in their columns. Hearing of this effusion we procured a copy, and really we cannot wonder at its suppression. To say the very least the poetical editor of the Lafayette would do well to brush up his metres. In another portion of their sheet they bemoan the fact that Lehigh and Lafayette are but twelve miles apart. We can sympathize with them to the fullest extent on this point at least.

PACKER MEMORIAL CHURCH,
Now being erected in the Lehigh University Park, South Bethlehem, Pa.

LAYING OF THE CORNER-STONE OF THE PACKER MEMORIAL CHURCH.

THIS year Founder's Day, Thursday, Oct. 8th, was observed by the laying of the corner-stone of the Packer Memorial Church, which is being erected by Mrs. Mary Packer Cummings in memory of her father, Hon. Asa Packer, the founder of the Lehigh University; her mother, Sarah M. Packer; her sister, Mrs. Lucy Packer Linderman; her brothers, R. Asa Packer and Harry E. Packer, and is to be devoted to the uses of the Lehigh University.

The day was an extremely disagreeable one, and the principal part of the exercises were conducted in a chilling drizzle. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, there was a very large audience present. The foundations had been carefully floored over, and seats were provided for all of the large number of spectators. The corner-stone was laid by the Grand Lodge of Masons of Pennsylvania, and the Church service, apparently, was made supplementary.

The clergy, trustees, faculty, alumni and students formed at the library, and, headed by Dr. Lamberton, President of the Lehigh University, and marshaled by Prof. W. A. Lamberton, marched to the site of the new church, singing "The Church's One Foundation." Among the clergy were Rt. Rev. M. A. DeWolfe Howe, D. D., LL.D., Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, Rt. Rev. N. S. Rulison, Assistant Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, Dr. Hopkins of Williamsport, Pa., Dr. Clover of Reading, Pa., Rev. W. B. Morrow of Sayre, Pa., Rev. F. M. Bird, Rev. C. K. Nelson of South Bethlehem, Rev. M. A. Tolman of Mauch Chunk, Pa., Rev. Chandler Hare of Lebanon, Pa., Rev. George R. Van De-Water of Brooklyn, L. I., and a number of others. Most of the clergy wore their ecclesiastical robes. The members of the board of trustees who were present were Bishop Howe of Reading, Pa., Wm. H. Sayre of Bethlehem, Hon. Eckley B. Coxe of Drifton, Pa., E. P. Wilbur of South Bethlehem, and H. Stanley Goodwin of South Bethlehem; and Rev. M. A. Tolman of Mauch Chunk, Pa., and Charles Brodhead of Bethlehem, honorary trustees.

Hassler's orchestra of Philadelphia and the University choir, under the leadership of Prof. H. C. Johnson, furnished the music. The juniors attended to the ushering in a very efficient manner.

After a very disagreeable delay of over half an hour, the Masonic procession, headed by the Bethlehem Cornet Band, arrived at the site of the Church, and the Masons took their positions. The clergy, trustees, faculty, and alumni were placed on the left side of the platform and the various Masonic lodges filled the right side. There were about 300 Masons present.

The Masonic ceremonies were concluded by an excellent address by the Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburg. The choir then sang "With one consent let all the Earth," to the tune of "Old Hundred."

The Church services were then begun and formed quite a contrast to the Masonic ceremonies. After the Lord's Prayer and appropriate collects by Bishops Howe and Rulison, the choir and audience sang with great vigor parts of the CXXVII and LXXXIV Psalms. The Rt. Rev. N. S. Rulison, Assistant Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, then delivered a very eloquent address. The Gloria Patri was then sung, after which Bishop Howe read the lesson from the third chapter of the Book of Ezra. Bishop Howe then proceeded to the corner-stone and repeated certain versicles, the entire audience joining in the responses. The Bishop then struck the corner-stone three times and said: "This corner-stone is laid in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. The edifice here to be erected by the name of the Packer Memorial Church is to be devoted to the service of Almighty God, according to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. Amen." Bishop Howe then delivered a very feeling and excellent address. The choir sang the hymn "Christ is our Corner-Stone," after which the Bishop read several prayers. The doxology was then sung, and Bishop Howe dismissed the audience with the benediction.

THE GOSSIP.

THE good people of Bethlehem are becoming very fashionable indeed. In days gone by the athletic hops, always considered small affairs, began at the seasonable hour of half-past eight or nine. And now, if the last one can be taken as the standard, it is impossible to begin the dancing much before ten. The very old students, from force of habit, and the very new ones, little expecting such town-like doings in a place of this size, appeared at the old hour. Dismal indeed was the sight presented for upwards of an hour to the Gossip in the Gymnasium. Men, men, men, with dress suits of all characters; with vests cut high, with vests cut low, white and black, loomed up on every side. Every one was afraid that not a girl would turn up, and for a long time it looked as if their fears were well founded. However, a little before the fashionable hour mentioned, they began to appear in quantities, and the ball, naturally, was a great success. The Gossip cannot say truthfully of the supper, that, in the newspaper parlance, it left nothing to be desired. It did, but do not let us dwell upon a subject so harrowing.

* * *

The authorities, as usual, provided us with Founder's Day weather. The Gossip would inform the uninitiated that by Founder's Day weather is meant weather of that character which leaves you a little uncertain as to whether it is the more advisable to wear an ulster or a linen duster, to carry an umbrella or a cane. It is weather which invariably turns out contrary to the predictions in the morning papers. The popular taste on this Founder's Day seemed to favor the ulster-umbrella type, and very fortunately, too. For what would have become of robes, surplices and purple aprons, if the public had not been actuated by an impulse to carry umbrellas? To so great an extent was this impulse acted upon, that a freshman aptly compared the procession from the Library to the Chapel, to Mark Twain's ascent of the Riffelburg, in the "Tramp Abroad."

* * *

The Gossip, who, of course, is omnipresent, hears a great deal of raillery against the system which excludes from the Library the Philadelphia Press. To be sure, we do have our dear old Ledger, and then the Telegraph arrives at ten o'clock on the day after its publication. The Press can be obtained at twelve cents a week. The University surely must be able to undertake the burden of this expense for the sake of its numerous Pennsylvanians, who have a natural inclination to see the best paper which their State produces.

* * *

For the benefit of the witty sophomores therein concerned, the Gossip would state that their mock programme of the sports was considered one of the worst fizzles of the day. It is bad enough to be obliged to witness races between one man and time, bad time at that, without being presented with a failure in red, black and green. When it came to capturing medals, however, our freshmen out-did their elders of the sophomore class.

* * *

The recitations of the juniors in English Literature certainly afford rare material to the paragraph makers. This is what came to the Gossip's ears not very long ago. They were considering, among other lights of early English Literature, the Venerable Bede, and the professor was desirous of knowing by what title he was generally known. "Oh," volunteered our literary novice, "his first name was Adam."

FALL SPORTS.

THE Fall Meeting of the Athletic Association, postponed from Founder's Day on account of the heavy rain, was held upon the following Saturday, which proved to be an excellent day, the track being in better condition than formerly, with the exception of a short space upon the back stretch; the only regret being the few entries in certain events and the absence of the old-time tug of war. The members of the executive committee were Chas. E. Clapp, '86, president; J. W. LaDoo, '87, secretary; C. R. Phillips, '88, treasurer; and F. H. Farquhar, '89.

The events were as follows:

One Mile Walk.—Won by J. S. Seibert, '86, in 9 minutes and 2 seconds.

100 Yards Dash.—Was a pretty race and was won by F. H. Farquhar, '89, in 11 2-5 seconds, with C. W. Schwartz, Jr., '89, a close second.

Running High Jump.—Was won by S. D. Langdon, '87, height, 5 feet 1 inch.

Half Mile Run.—Was a walk-over for E. P. Van Kirk, '87.

Bicycle Race, One Mile.—W. S. Ramsey, '88, was winner, time, 4 minutes 40 seconds.

Hurdle Race.—Won by R. K. Polk, '87, in 18 4-5 seconds, being the best time we have had since '82.

Slow Bicycle Race.—J. H. Millholland, '88, was winner, no time taken.

One Mile Run.—This was the event of the day and was an excellent race, both E. P. Van Kirk, '87, and P. Toulmin, '86, breaking the College record. Both are beautiful runners, and the intense excitement was kept up till the end when E. P. Van Kirk, '87, came in winner, time 4 minutes 59 seconds, with P. Toulmin scarcely a second behind. Van Kirk is the most promising runner which Lehigh has ever had. We may expect him to do good work for Lehigh in the future inter-collegiate contests. Considering the fact that the track was a few seconds slow on a lap, the record was a brilliant one.

Pole Vault.—Won by Geo. D. Mish, '89, height, 8 feet 1 1/2 inches. Mr. Mish was a happy surprise and was heartily applauded.

220 Yards Dash.—An exciting race, won by F. H. Farquhar, '89, a promising short distance runner for Lehigh, time, 26 seconds.

Running Broad Jump.—Won easily by R. K. Polk, '87, distance, 17 feet 2 inches.

440 Yards Dash.—Walk over for G. B. Shane, '88; time, 62 seconds.

Tennis Tournament.—C. B. Davis, '87, gave R. H. E. Porter, '89, fifteen points on each game, and won with a score of 3-6, 6-0, 6-5, 6-4. Porter displayed excellent playing, but Davis easily held the championship.

TALES OF A COLLEGE INN.

THERE is an inn, in Bethlehem Town,
Where students drink their ale and beer;
The inn is old, of good repute,
Nor do the students lack of cheer.
There do they gather on cold nights,
When study with success is crowned,
And loud and joyous is the mirth,
And song and jest pass freely round.

But first the inn will I describe,
A red brick building, low and wide.
A common room was cut in twain,
With tables set along the side,
And on the wall a picture hung,
The cottage where great Garfield died.

Full many a scene of joyous mirth
That room has seen in days gone by.
Of men whose names are mentioned now
With honor and with many a sigh.

A merry crowd had gathered there,
On one cold night late in the Fall,
Chaffing the landlord and his wife,
As was the custom of them all.

The landlord was a jovial man,
From Germany's bright land he came;
Proud of his country, too, was he;
His accent did the fact proclaim
That Alsace was his native place,—
That place of Franco-Prussian fame.
Behind the bar he kept the slate,—
The tick of many a man was there

Whose custom 'twas to stay out late.
Full many a man it gave away,—
Hence it was called "The Book of Fate."

His worthy wife was there, likewise,
Of form rotund, and massive size.
The freshmen called her "Mother" all,
And told to her, 'mid tears and sighs,
Of how the sophomores loud and bold
Would scare them with most furious cries.

There was a worthy Doctor there,
Of reverend aspect and attire,
A man of learning great and rare,
And none could listen but admire
One who could dignity so great
Combine with poverty most dire.
A lantern held he in his hand,
Which, by a chain he carried through
The night, to guide his footsteps home.
E'er Chanticleer his clarion blew.

A senior, too, did grace the inn.
Correct and dignified was he;
A stove-pipe on his head he wore,
A sight imposing, one might see,
He thought one was, who in a year
Would be a good and full A. B.

A junior, famous ladies' man,
From calling just had stopped in there.
Completely dressed and shaven well;
His brand new hat was brushed with care,
Ready to answer to the toast
He knew so well, "To Maidens Fair."

The bold, bad soph'more was of course
One of the party. No one e'er
Went to the inn on winter nights,
Who'd not expect to find him there.
His brazen lungs he exercised
In singing College songs and lays;
In voice of thunder, too, did he
Disturb the freshmen at their plays.

A freshman then made up the group,
With mild and innocent blue eyes,
With golden hair and tender voice,
And every one expressed surprise
That one so small and tender too
Should come to Lehigh while so young
And innocent, amid the rude,
Rough life of College to be flung.

MALCOLM WYNNE.

[To be Continued.]

—The freshman colors are crimson and black, and their cry "Rah! Rah! Rah! Rouge et noir! We cry, We cry! '89 Lehigh!"

THE INTER-COLLEGIATE TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

THE fourth annual tournament of the Inter-Collegiate Lawn Tennis Association was held in New Haven, beginning Thursday, Oct. 15, continuing until the following Monday. Nine colleges were represented as follows: Amherst by Messrs. Chase and Pratt; Brown by Messrs. Danielson and Brownell; Harvard by Messrs. P. and W. Sears, Lord and Kuhn; Lehigh by Messrs. Howe, '86, and Davis, '87; Princeton by Messrs. Halsey and Larkins; Trinity by Messrs. Brinley and Paddock; Wesleyan by Messrs. Coffin and Kabayama; Williams by Mr. Duryea, his partner, Mr. Tanner, failing to appear; and Yale by Messrs. Knapp, Shipman, Thacher and Ludington.

The tournament was held upon the grounds of the New Haven Lawn Club, which affords as good clay courts as can be found in the country.

In the first round of the singles, H. Sears was defeated by Duryea, and Larkins by Chase. In the second, Kabayama was defeated by P. Sears; Pratt by Lord; Brinley by Knapp, one of the great surprises of the tournament; Coffin by Danielson; Davis by Chase, score 6-3, 5-7, 6-1; Thacher by Duryea; and Tanner by Brownell, by default. In the third round Duryea defeated P. Sears; Paddock, Brownell; Knapp defeated Chase, a very hard-fought game; and Lord, Danielson. In the fourth round Duryea defeated Lord, and Knapp defeated Paddock. Duryea was decidedly the dark horse of the tournament, but in the finals was defeated by Knapp, who for the second time, holds the championship for himself and Yale.

In the play for second place in the singles Duryea defeated Paddock, and Brinley won from Chase, having, however, lost one set to him. Brinley and Duryea played off for second place on Monday the 19th.

In the first round of the doubles, Thacher and Ludington won from Duryea and Tanner by default; Chase and Pratt defeated Lord and Kuhn; while Lehigh's pair, Davis and Howe, defeated Coffin and Kabayama of Wesleyan, 6-1, 6-1. In the second round Larkins and Halsey won from Danielson and Brownell; Knapp and Shipman from the Sears brothers; Chase and Pratt of Amherst from Davis and Howe of Lehigh, score 9-7, 6-4; and Brinley and Paddock from Thacher and Ludington. In the third round Brinley and Paddock defeated Larkins and Halsey, and Knapp and Shipman won from Chase and Pratt, after a very close contest. In the final doubles Knapp and Shipman defeated Brinley and Paddock.

In the play for second place in the doubles Brinley and Paddock defeated the Sears brothers, and then in turn were defeated by Chase and Pratt by the very close score of 6-4, 0-6, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4. Thus it will be seen that Yale retains first place in both doubles and singles. Amherst wins second place in the doubles.

Although Lehigh's name does not appear in any of the concluding matches of the tournament, it is comforting to observe that in both doubles and singles she was defeated by players who stood very high in the lists, their vanquishers in the former stopping only at second place. The result of the tournament was to a certain extent a surprise to everyone. All expected great things of Brinley in the singles, and of the Sears twins in the doubles; while Duryea of Williams and the Amherst team did not enter the consideration of tennis wise-aces even to the slightest degree. The tournament, however, was eminently a success, great improvement being noticeable in many of the players.

At a business meeting of the Association, held during the tournament, it was decided that clay courts should be used next year also, Lehigh voting against this measure. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. Brinley of Trinity; Vice-President, Mr. Ludington of Yale; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Larkins of Princeton; Lehigh's place on the Executive Committee for the ensuing year, is to be filled by Mr. Frazier.

DE ALUMNIS.

[Contributions to this Department are solicited]

'82.—J. D. Ruff, E. M., has gone to Florida to spend the winter.

'83.—W. T. Goodnow, C. E., of the firm of Brown & Goodnow, is at present engaged in carrying out an extensive contract for the Bethlehem South Water & Gas Co. Water will be supplied to West Bethlehem by means of pipes laid across the Lehigh River.

'85.—J. H. Wells, C. E. is assistant teacher at the South Bethlehem High School.

'85.—W. H. Cooke, B. A., is studying homeopathy at the Medical Department of the University of Boston.

According to the revised constitution of the Athletic Association, the Alumni are to be represented on the Executive Committee by four members, resident in the Bethlehems. The following were elected at the last meeting, and are now actively engaged in strengthening our athletic interests: Prof. E. H. Williams, Jr., '75, A. E. Meaker, '75, W. T. Goodnow, '83, and I. A. Heikes, '85.

The proceedings of the Alumni Association, with Constitution and By-Laws, for the year '84-'85, have been printed. Several changes may be seen in regard to membership and the awarding of the oratorical prizes. In the future the orations shall be presented to the Professor of Rhetoric at least thirty days before the contest, and shall be forwarded, with certificates of eligibility of the competitors, to the secretary of the Alumni Association. Only five of the class of '85 have joined the Association; the small number may be due to the regulation regarding membership, but it has the appearance of a want of interest on the part of recent graduates. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: E. H. Williams, Jr., '75, president; G. A. Jenkins, '70, and C. C. Hopkins, '82, vice presidents; Charles Bull, '78, treasurer, and J. S. Cunningham, '79, Alumni trustee.

KERNELS.

—A chapter of the Delta Upsilon fraternity has been started at Lehigh.

—Mr. Herrick reports that '89 is the best class, physically, that he has ever examined.

—Six out of fourteen '88 men passed in the re-examination in Algebra. The others were dropped.

—The Lehigh Valley Railroad time table, which has been placed in the hallway of Packer, is a great convenience.

—The Bethlehem Times gives full and accurate reports of all University news. It should be heartily welcomed by the students, and especially by the scrap book fiends.

—The freshman class has elected the following officers: Wm. Butterworth, president; J. T. Morrow, vice president, W. D. Farwell, secretary; Arch. Johnston, treasurer, and Wallis E. Howe, historian.

—Happily there has been no cane rush this fall. Having survived thus long without a cane rush, we see no reason why the lower classmen cannot get along for the rest of the term without that luxury.

—The fire escapes on the south and east sides of Packer have been finished, and now the students have no excuse for cutting the "attic professors." "Fear of fire" will no longer be accepted as an excuse for cutting French.

—The junior class has elected the following Epitome committee: Editors—G. T. Richards, H. H. Stoeck, W. A. McFarland, C. F. Zimmele, L. B. Stillwell, H. C. Yeatman, and H. S. Fisher; Artists—Kenneth Frazier and J. A. Morrow.

—The lack of enthusiasm and college feeling, about which we complain so much, was more apparent than ever when Lehigh's tennis players returned from Wilmington. The students should have turned out to welcome them when they returned.

—The library of the late Judge J. W. Maynard of Williamsport, Pa., one of the trustees of Lehigh University, is being placed upon the shelves of the University library. An excellent marble bust of the Judge by Rinaldi accompanies the collection.

—Those Lehigh men who growl at being obliged to go to the Gymnasium twice a week, had better not move to Amherst. A new rule has been passed which refuses his diploma to the man who has not attended to his gymnasium duties during his course.

—No student should fail to subscribe for the Engineering Journal, which will be issued quarterly by the Engineering Society. The editors will be I. A. Heikes, '85, A. S. Ross, '86, and H. G. Reist, '86. An additional editor will be chosen from eighty-seven.

—Ambitious French Scholar:—"Mr. — will you let me recite on the vocabulary?"

Instructor (smiling):—"Well, Mr. —, what is 'white'?"

A. F. S.:—"Ah—er—ah—."

Applause by class.

—There is a tradition in the College that in the days of Dr. Coppée's presidency he promised an elaborate supper to the first base-ball team which should win a victory from Lafayette. An understanding that the same promise will hold good with foot-ball men exists. This may have something to do with the efforts of these gentlemen in the desired direction.

—Professor of English History:—"Mr. —, who brought the Normans into England?"

Puzzled Junior:—"Er—ah—."

Professor, (Suggesting):—"Wil—liam?"

P. J.:—"Oh, to be sure, William."

Professor, (Impatient):—"Well, what William?"

P. J.:—"William the —um—er."

Professor, (In disgust):—"Conqueror."

P. J. takes his seat audibly bemoaning his curious lapse of memory.

COLLEGE NOTES.

CORNELL.—The campus is soon to be lighted with electricity.—Judge Foraker, governor-elect of Ohio, is a graduate of Cornell.—The freshmen class, which numbers nearly 250, is made up largely of students from the West.

YALE.—Yale has a strong Co-operative Society.—The Yale papers regard the class of '87 as being stronger in athletic sports than any other class in college.—Yale holds the inter-collegiate tennis championship.—Prof. Sumner has received the degree of LL.D. from the University of Tennessee.

HARVARD.—The Nine is practicing industriously.—Harvard has withdrawn from the Foot-Ball Association.—The Co-operative Society is to continue its work this year. The expenses of the Society are met by an annual fee of $2.50 from each member, and a profit of from 5 to 10 per cent. on goods sold. There are 837 members.

JOHNS HOPKINS.—The incoming class of graduate students numbers 54. colleges in all parts of the world being represented.—Dr. Copen Rene Gregory, who until recently held the chair of New Testament Greek at the University of Leipsic, occupies the same chair at Johns Hopkins.—The Clifden Estate has been fitted up for athletic sports at a cost of $6,000.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.—There are prospects of a very strong foot-ball team this season.—The attendance at the foot-ball matches, so far, has been extremely small.—At the option of the professors, a man may be excused from examination when his standing for the term has been "very good."—"Corner fights" are very scarce this year.—The incoming class in the Law School is quite large.

PRINCETON.—The foot-ball eleven is now in training and gives promise of an exceptionally good year for the college.—The graduate committee's powers have been extended over all athletics.—The Chess Club is now playing Harvard, Yale, Cornell and Bowdoin.—The applications for places on the Glee Club are much smaller than for many years.—'87 has not lost a single game of base-ball for the past two years.

ELSEWHERE.—The Brown Base-Ball Club is in training.—The Glee Club has been organized.—Bowdoin's new gymnasium is two stories high and fully fitted up. An important feature is a race track above the second story proper. Prof. Sargent of Harvard, who is a graduate of Bowdoin, is superintending the arrangements.—Miami University, at Oxford, Ohio, has been reopened.—Seven sophomores at Williams have been suspended on account of the cane rush.—The Rutgers gymnasium is the property of the Theological Department.—On account of the failure of George I. Seevey, the scholarships founded by him at Wesleyan will be withdrawn at the end of the present year.—Drunkenness is still prevalent at Lafayette, notwithstanding the desire of The Lafayette to have its readers think otherwise. The freshman classes at Lafayette College decrease every year in a regular ratio, having fallen from 120 to 60 in four years.

CLIPPINGS.

IN holland brown she stands to greet

Me as I come adown the street.

The sunlight falling on her hair

Leaves warm caresses gently there—

A picture with true grace replete!

The roses twining round her feet

Breathe gentle fragrance rare and sweet.

She sings a merry rustic air—

In holland brown.

O years that fly so swift and fleet!

O storms that 'gainst her window beat!

Keep her from harm and tears and care!

That future years may find her where

In days of June we used to meet,

In holland, brown.—Williams Fortnight.

THE MAGIC NAME.

'TWILL be Puritan this and Puritan that,

And Puritan all the way through,

The Puritan suit and Puritan hat,

And the Puritan necktie, too.

The Puritan bonnet, the Puritan cloak,

And also the Puritan car;

The Puritan brand of tobacco we'll smoke,

And the Puritan native cigar.

The Puritan stove, the Puritan toy,

The Puritan horse, and last,

We'll give the name to the College boy

Whene'er he's inclined to be fast.

—The Republican.

OLD MORAVIAN SUN HOTEL

The Sun Hotel is situated in the business centre of the Town—opposite the Post Office, near all the principal business places. Its rooms and accommodations are second to none in the town, and the charges only two dollars per day. Special and satisfactory arrangements are made with students of Lehigh University who wish rooms or table board at the Sun.

The Sun, or the "Inn," as it was called in the old colonial days, is one of the landmarks of Bethlehem, in fact, of the whole country. It was built during the reign of King George, in 1758, and has been run as a hotel ever since. During the Revolution it was patronized by Washington, Lafayette, Hancock, and other heroes and Statesmen of that day, and it is well worth a visit for its historical associations alone.

A. H. BEERS, Proprietor.
